Disclaimer

This investor presentation (this "presentation") is for informational purposes only and does not constitute an offer to sell, a solicitation of an offer to buy, or a recommendation to purchase any equity or debt or other financial instruments of B. Riley Principal Merger Corp. ("BRPM"), Alta Equipment Company, Inc. ("Alta") or their respective affiliates. This presentation has been prepared to assist investors in making their own evaluation with respect to the proposed business combination (the "Transaction") between BRPM and Alta, and for no other purpose.

The information contained herein does not purport to be all-inclusive. The data contained herein is derived from various internal and external sources. No representation is made as to the reasonableness of the assumptions made within or the accuracy or completeness of any projections or modeling or any other information contained herein. Any data on past performance or modeling contained herein is not an indication as to future performance. BRPM and Alta assume no obligation to update the information in this presentation, except as required by law. Furthermore, any and all trademarks and trade names referred to in this presentation are the property of their respective owners.

Forward-Looking Statements. This presentation includes "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the "safe harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1996. BRPM's and Alta's actual results may differ from their expectations, estimates and projections and consequently, you should not rely on these forward-looking statements as predictions of future events. Words such as "expect," "estimate," "project," "budget," "forecast," "anticipate," "intend," "plan," "may," "will," "could," "should," "believes," "predicts," "potential," "continue," and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, without limitation, BRPM's and Alta's expectations with respect to future performance and anticipated financial impacts of the Transaction, the satisfaction of closing conditions to the Transaction, the level of redemptions by BRPM's public stockholders in connection with the Transaction, and the timing of the completion of the Transaction. These forward-looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties that could cause the actual results to differ materially from the expected results. Most of these factors are outside BRPM's and Alta's control and are difficult to predict. Factors that may cause such differences include, but are not limited to: the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of a definitive agreement for the proposed Transaction (the "Transaction Agreement") or could otherwise cause the Transaction to fail to close; the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against BRPM, Alta or any of their respective directors or officers, following the announcement of the Transaction Agreement and the transactions contemplated therein; the inability to complete the Transaction, including due to failure to obtain approval of the stockholders of BRPM or other conditions to closing in the Transaction Agreement; delays in obtaining, adverse conditions contained in, or the inability to obtain necessary regulatory approvals or complete regular reviews required to complete the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreement; the ability to obtain or maintain the listing of BRPM's shares of Class A common stock on the NYSE following the Transaction; the risk that the announcement and consummation of the Transaction disrupts current plans and operations; the inability to recognize the anticipated benefits of the Transaction, which may be affected by, among other things, competition, the ability of the combined company to grow and manage growth profitably, maintain relationships and retain its key employees; costs related to the Transaction; changes in the applicable laws or regulations; the possibility that Alta or the combined company may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors; demand for Alta products and services; Alta's business strategy; Alta's financial strategy, operating cash flows, liquidity and capital required for Alta's business; Alta's future revenue, income and operating performance; the termination of relationships with major customers; laws and regulations, including environmental regulations, that may increase Alta's costs, limit the demand for its products and services or restrict its operations; disruptions in the political, regulatory, economic and social conditions domestically or internationally; a failure of Alta's information technology infrastructure or any significant breach of security; potential uninsured claims and litigation against us; Alta's dependence on the continuing services of certain of Alta's key managers and employees; plans, objectives, expectations and intentions that are not historical; and other risks and uncertainties identified in this presentation or indicated from time to time in the proxy statement to be filed relating to the Transaction, including those under the section entitled "Risk Factors" therein and in BRPM's other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). BRPM cautions that the foregoing list of factors is not exclusive. BRPM cautions readers not to place undue reliance upon any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made. Neither BRPM nor Alta undertake or accept any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements to reflect any change in its expectations or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based.

No Offer or Solicitation. This presentation shall not constitute a solicitation of a proxy, consent or authorization with respect to any securities or in respect of the Transaction. This presentation shall also not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities, nor shall there be any sale of securities in any states or jurisdictions in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction.

No Representation or Warranty. None of BRPM, Alta or any of their respective affiliates makes any representation or warranty as to the accuracy or completeness of the information contained in this presentation. The sole purpose of the presentation is to assist persons in deciding whether they wish to proceed with a further review of the Transaction and is not intended to be all-inclusive or to contain all the information that a person may desire in considering the Transaction. It is not intended to form the basis of any investment decision or any other decision in respect of the Transaction. Nothing in this presentation shall be construed as tax, business or legal advice. All persons receiving this presentation should seek their own legal, business and tax advice.

Financial Information. The financial information contained in this presentation has been taken from or prepared based on the historical financial statements of Alta for the periods presented. An audit of these financial statements is in process and will be incorporated in the proxy statement relating to the Transaction, however none of the historical financial information contained herein has been audited, reviewed, compiled or been subject to any procedures by any auditors and actual historical financial information could differ materially from the information contained herein.

Use of Projections. This presentation contains financial forecasts, including with respect to Alta's Adjusted EBITDA, revenue and free cash flow, among others. Neither BRPM's nor Alta's independent auditors have studied, reviewed, compiled or performed any procedures with respect to the projections for the purpose of their inclusion in this presentation, and accordingly, neither of them expressed an opinion or provided any other form of assurance with respect thereto for the purpose of this presentation. These projections are for illustrative purposes only and should not be relied upon as being necessarily indicative of future results. In this presentation, certain of the above-mentioned projected information has been provided for purposes of providing comparisons with historical data. The assumptions and estimates underlying the prospective financial information are inherently uncertain and are subject to a wide variety of significant business, economic and competitive risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in the prospective financial information. Projections are inherently uncertain due to a number of factors outside of Alta's control. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the prospective results are indicative of future performance of Alta or the combined company after the Transaction or that actual results will not differ materially from those presented in the prospective financial information. Inclusion of the prospective financial information in this presentation should not be regarded as a representation by any person that the results contained in the prospective financial information will be achieved.

Industry and Market Data. In this presentation, we rely on and refer to information and statistics regarding market participants in the sectors in which Alta competes and other industry data. We obtained this information and statistics from third-party sources, including reports by market research firms and company filings.

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Matters. This presentation includes non-GAAP financial measures, including Adjusted EBITDA and free cash flow. BRPM and Alta believe that these non-GAAP measures are useful to investors for two principal reasons. First, they believe these measures may assist investors in comparing performance over various reporting periods on a consistent basis by removing from operating results the impact of items that do not reflect core operating performance. Second, these measures are used by Alta's management to assess its performance and may (subject to the limitations described below) enable investors to compare the performance of Alta and the combined company to its competition. BRPM and Alta believe that the use of these non-GAAP financial measures provides an additional tool for investors to use in evaluating ongoing operating results and trends. These non-GAAP measures should not be considered in isolation from, or as an alternative to, financial measures determined in accordance with GAAP. Other companies may calculate Adjusted EBITDA and free cash flow and other non-GAAP financial measures differently, and therefore Alta's non-GAAP financial measures may not be directly comparable to similarly titled measures of other companies.

Additional Information About the Transaction and Where to Find It. In connection with the proposed Transaction, BRPM intends to file preliminary and definitive proxy statements with the SEC. The preliminary and definitive proxy statements and other relevant documents will be sent or given to the stockholders of BRPM as of the record date established for voting on the proposed transaction and will contain important information about the proposed transaction and related matters. BRPM stockholders and other interested persons are advised to read, when available, the preliminary proxy statement and any amendments thereto and, once available, the definitive proxy statement, in connection with BRPM's solicitation of proxies for the meeting of stockholders to be held to approve, among other things, the proposed transaction, because the proxy statement will contain important information about BRPM, Alta and the proposed transaction. When available, the definitive proxy statement will be mailed to BRPM stockholders as of a record date to be established for voting on the proposed transaction. Stockholders will also be able to obtain copies of the proxy statement, without charge, once available, at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. Copies of the documents filed with the SEC by BRPM when and if available, can be obtained free of charge on BRPM's website at www.brileyfin.com/principalmergercorp or by directing a written request to B. Riley Principal Merger Corp., 299 Park Avenue, 21st Floor, New York, NY 10171.

Participants in the Solicitation. BRPM and Alta and their respective directors and executive officers may, under SEC rules, be deemed participants in the solicitation of proxies of BRPM stockholders in connection with the proposed transaction. Information about such persons, including their names and a description of their interests in BRPM, Alta and the proposed transaction, as applicable, will be set forth in the proxy statement for the proposed transaction, when it becomes available. The proxy statement will be available free of charge from the sources indicated above.

Investment Highlights

1

- High quality business
  - Dealership model highlighted by material barriers to entry and a stable, recurring cash flow stream through the Parts and Service operations
  - Skilled technicians represent a material intangible asset of the platform
  - One-stop-shop for highly diverse group of customers' needs has allowed Alta to profitably double its revenue over last 3 years

2

- Organic growth embedded in existing asset base
  - Alta has made significant investment in the field population in several of its markets, which should lead to predictable and growing cash flows from Parts and Service over the next several years

- Platform company poised to benefit from industry dynamics creating a large universe of acquisition targets without natural buyers
  - Alta currently plans to grow Adj. EBITDA by 20% per year through acquisitions that diversify the business from a geographic, end market, and original equipment manufacturer (OEM) perspective

4

- Track record of value creation
  - Ryan Greenawalt has successfully integrated 16 acquisitions since 2008, in addition to facilitating a management buyout in 2017. Mr. Greenawalt is rolling approximately 85% of his consideration into equity of the combined company.
  - B. Riley Financial has grown from a private broker-dealer in 2014 to a diversified holding company with $1.4B of assets and a ~$740MM market cap<sup>1</sup>

- Attractive valuation relative to broadly-defined comp universe despite greater organic and inorganic growth profile
- Alta is being priced cheap to heavy equipment rental companies despite the vastly superior quality of a dealership business

6

- Clear capital allocation policy with a mix of growth capex, M&A, and dividends to reward shareholders with both capital return and appreciation over time

Track Record of Value Creation – Ryan Greenawalt

Arrival and Operational Improvements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Ryan Greenawalt joined family-owned Alta Lift Truck Services Inc. in 2008, which had ~$60MM of revenue focused on industrial equipment (forklifts) in Michigan</li> <li>▪ Mr. Greenawalt immediately focused on business operations and recruiting, making significant investment in infrastructure, inventory, and people</li> <li>▪ New leadership emphasized a more entrepreneurial and empowered culture</li> <li>▪ Over time, Mr. Greenawalt formalized his vision, mission, and guiding principles for Alta, and has been an energetic spokesperson for building a purpose-driven culture while immersing himself into the national OEM and dealership communities</li> </ul>
Development and Execution of Growth Strategy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Under Mr. Greenawalt's leadership, Alta has completed 16 acquisitions, expanded from one state to seven, and increased the branch network from 9 to 31 locations while growing the revenue base ~10X</li> <li>▪ In 2009, Mr. Greenawalt pursued expansion into construction equipment and approached Volvo Construction Equipment after learning that the Michigan distributor was factory-owned</li> <li>▪ Also in 2009, Alta capitalized on Hyster-Yale's strategy to have both brands distributed by a single dealer, acquiring two Hyster dealerships in the metro Chicago market – expanding into one of the nation's largest industrial truck markets</li> <li>▪ Recently, Alta acquired Northland Industrial Truck Co., Inc. (NITCO), expanding into the New England lift truck and construction markets while further diversifying Alta's geographic, customer, and OEM bases</li> <li>▪ Mr. Greenawalt has strong relationships with the major OEMs, and Alta's M&amp;A track record makes it a preferred consolidator by both Volvo and Hyster-Yale</li> <li>▪ Alta has two potential acquisitions currently under LOI which, if consummated, would represent $21MM of incremental Adj. EBITDA in new geographies and believes that it has a robust pipeline of accretive acquisitions over the next few years. The consummation of the two potential acquisitions under LOI are contingent upon the closing of the business combination with BRPM.</li> </ul>
Buyout of Family Members and Other Shareholders	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ In 2017, Mr. Greenawalt executed a succession plan, buying out founder/father Steven Greenawalt and limited partners and acquiring 100% of the equity</li> <li>▪ Buyout financed with second-lien debt with penny warrants provided by Goldman Sachs</li> <li>▪ Since the buyout, Adj. EBITDA has grown by 73%</li> </ul>

Capital Allocation Policy

- Cash generative nature of the business allows the Board and Management to allocate capital between growth capex, deleveraging, returning capital to shareholders, and funding M&A
- The opportunity set will fluctuate over time, so ROIC will be reassessed continuously
- The Board is committed to a consistent dividend alongside growth

Illustrative Operating Model

- Execute on M&A pipeline, acquiring est. $521MM of revenue and $57MM of Adj. EBITDA over 3 years
- Grow Organic Revenue at approximately 8.0% CAGR, driving organic Adj. EBITDA growth of est. 10.1% CAGR
- Continue to prioritize Parts and Service penetration, generating predictable, recurring revenue at 50% gross margin
- New and Used – Forecast 4% revenue growth in mature Industrial markets and 8-11% growth in nascent Illinois business
- Parts and Service – Model estimated 9.3% Revenue and 10.7% Adj. EBITDA CAGR
  - NITCO projected to grow Parts and Service Adj. EBITDA at ~6.3% CAGR, led by continued focus on JCB Construction brand
  - Illinois Construction anticipated to grow Parts Adj. EBITDA at approximately 54.1% CAGR and reach positive Service Adj. EBITDA inflection point. Expect double-digit growth to continue over the medium term as field population grows and matures.
  - Michigan Construction should continue to benefit from prior period investment, growing Service Adj. EBITDA at forecasted 33.7% CAGR
- Rental
  - Strategic Growth CapEx investment in young Illinois Construction rental fleet

Financial Overview

Aftermarket Growth through Field Population

Parts and Service Revenue Follows Field Population: A Michigan Construction Case Study

- Since 2010, Alta has aggressively populated the field with serviceable construction equipment, and is now capitalizing on the aftermarket sales driven by their maintenance cycles
  - New and Used sales have ramped as Alta has taken market share, now selling an incremental $70MM+ of serviceable construction equipment into the region per year
- Alta was able to gain market share in MI because of its commitment to building a business around the Volvo product family. This commitment included investment in branch infrastructure, inventory and industry-leading talent.
- Alta’s Michigan Construction experience is highly replicable and will define the company’s strategy as it enters new regions

Commentary

- Entered the Illinois Construction market in 2018 through acquisition of Elite Heavy Equipment
  - Executing a service-first strategy. Will be more capital-efficient than Michigan's rental-first approach, necessitated by lack of service expertise and field population.
- Deploying skilled technician base with average 15-20 years of technical expertise
- Estimate Parts and Service revenue to grow at 39% CAGR through 2021E. Should contribute increasingly significant Adj. EBITDA as field population matures over the next 5-7 years.
- Projections assume $19.4MM of Rental Growth Capex investment 2019E-2021E
- Base case implies 13.7% Illinois Construction market share by 2021, consistent with the Michigan Construction experience and with ample room for continued penetration

Financial Overview

M&A Objectives

- Alta platform has been created through 16 acquisitions in the last 10 years and expect acquisitions to accelerate based on public currency and expanding pipeline
- Alta is benefitting from multiple structural trends in the equipment marketplace
  - OEMs consolidating their dealership networks into a smaller group of strong partners
  - Dealerships struggling to develop succession plans
  - Limited opportunity for private equity to enter the space given necessary approvals from OEMs
  - Few publicly traded peers. Minimal competition for targets.
  - Struggling local rental houses unable to compete due to lack of scale and limited access to skilled labor
- Alta has a multifaceted M&A strategy:
  - Consolidate independent dealers to create an optimized dealer partner in a given territory
  - Enhance service capabilities by targeting competitors with highly-skilled technicians
    - “Acquiring” technicians immediately increases Parts & Services business
  - Generate operating leverage by acquiring geographically contiguous businesses that can be improved by Alta’s systems and processes
    - Expand opportunistically with nearby rental businesses at <4x Adj. EBITDA before synergies of ~4% of revenue
  - Acquire new OEM relationships to offer additional brands and expand equipment product suite
  - Expand selectively into complementary services to claim greater share of customer wallet
- Today, Alta has a total M&A opportunity pipeline of 15+ potential targets, representing over $700MM of revenue
- Base case assumes an incremental $75MM of TEV purchased annually at 4.5x

Attractive Valuation

Commentary

- Alta has no pure play comparables, as there are no US-based equipment dealers focused on both harvesting parts and services revenues, rental cash flows, and an M&A roll-up strategy
- Heavy equipment dealers consist predominantly of Canadian-listed companies with heavy industry-specific exposure, most notably to the challenging oil & gas sector
- Specialty rental businesses tend to own longer-lived assets, but have similar characteristics to Alta's parts and services businesses, which represent ~60% of Alta's earnings
- US heavy equipment rental companies lack a steady parts and services business, and are therefore viewed as heavily cyclical assets
- US auto dealers are high-quality assets, but face structural concerns of autonomous cars, ridesharing, and online-based competition
- None of the comparables included have a business plan which includes expanding the Adj. EBITDA base by 20% per year through acquisitions
